THE POLICY OF PEACE.

The New York Journal of Commerce discusthis subject very fully, in an elaborate article of its issue of Wednesday last, and we are glad to neknowledge that it ignores, in the most explicit terms, the Vallandigham-Wood-Tamany-Mozart-Peace-at-any-price-party, and declares that the idea of stopping the war at this time, in order to enter into negotiations with armed rebels, is simply absurd, and with arms reseas, is simply absund, and with arms reseast, is simply absund, and with an indigeneral problem. The article contains some truth and some valuable suggestions, although unsatisfactory us a whole—because inconclusive. Speaking of the lighted-plate: Alvah Hovey, D. D. of Newton Centre, Mass; Roya, Win. 8. McKenzie, and A. J. Publika, A. H. Gisanger, Win. 8. McKenzie, and A. J. Publika, and R. E. Hobbits, of Newport; and brother A. M. Grunnell, of Wareners. er of rence upon the people of the United States, it uses the following language:

"it's democratic President was elected to day, and was to commence his term of office to morrow. "if a democratic President was elected to day, and was recommence his term of office to morrow, he would not dream of 'stopping the war' by may salden order, or by yielding anywhere one inch of territory to the enemy. He would not the contrary, strengthen his military and secondate his resources of cannon and powder and ships, and then exhibiting to the enemy die strength of the local people of the North, under health of the local people of the North, under health on the sociation of the local people of the North, under health of the sociation of the local people of the North, under health of the sociation of the sociation of the institutions of fooman, he would offer the old Union, with all its Designe, as the inevitable future of the contrary, the right he proceemion of the war. If the relations should accept that alternative, or by negotiation, the would sound a retreat, call back our armies from Virginia, Tennessee, Misshaippi, Locaisana and other southern states, permit the sensity to overein gallant old Kentacky, Maryland, Missori, and whatever other states they might above to lay unfoly hands upon—in short, any left there he peace,' and go about the folly of trying to make in by stopping the war,' we can rout the south of the sandisted to their adjustment, were obliged to conduct the late of the substance of the difficulties substituted for their adjustment, were obliged to conduct their session until 50 o'clock this conduct to late the substance of the difficulties and the substance of the difficulties of the substance of the difficulties of the substance of the difficulties of the substance ing to make it by 'stopping the war,' we can only say that such an imagination place a democratic say that such an imagination place a democratic freedent considerably lower in the scale of comments of the considerably lower in the scale of comments of the considerably lower in the scale of comments of the considerably lower in the scale of comments of the considerably lower in the scale of comments of the complained of?

This is good, so far as it goes, but door wrong.

The Conneil in their decisions larve held these conditions, and, in accordance therewith present the following as their re-"old Union with all its blessings" was never taken away from the revolted. States of the Boulla, but they thaust it away from themselves. If the broad agis of Constitutional liberty with Has the Church, in the counts of discipling which If the front regis of Constitutional inverty with the list blossings, extends not now over the Mistos of the South, to protect them in all "the sum of the South, to protect them in all "the immunities of freemen," it is because they have columnarily withdrawn from its sacred shelter. Finding they could not rule, and make the finding they could not rule. Finding they could not rule, and make the cassed institution the chief corner-stone of the templatic flow stood like Samson, between the pitters of the temple and embetwere I to destroy the chiefe and whelm themselves and us in one common ruin, but unlike Samson, they leaked the power to accomplish the dreadful deed.—
The loyal portions of the people, who have main the blessings of our Constitution and Government, and preserved the Republic, have no desire to shut out even the revolted States from the blessings of our Constitution and Government, when they lay down their arms, show themselves worthy to be received by a true repentance of their crimes, and once more knock for admittance at the door of the Union. Should they do this, there is no man or purty of men, mittance of the door of the Union. Should that the door of the Union. Should that to do his failure.

In speaking of this fact, and in criticising the article from the Journal of Commerce, the Post holds the following truthful language:

the following truthful language:

But the discretel knows, as all the world knows, that they (the rebels) will not accept such terms of passes; on the contrary, they have been fighting against them for two years; and they will continue to fight until they are subdued, or until the North is willing to grant them other terms, contrading new securities and defences of shavry. Why is it that the Journal and other papers of its class, whenever they begin to talk of peace, so partitionally keep out of sight the real some of our certain, which must be healed before we can indicate the least hope of recovering leading. Why is it that they shut their eyes to the fact that there can be no peace between the North and the South while shaving and discussion ought to have convinced them of this truth—ought to have convinced them of this truth—ought to have convinced them of the fundamental antagonism of states of society transition the one side on liberty and on the other ride on slavery, and ought to have contained them of the ride and doody condict to recognise that addition and irreconcileable cause of difference in all their schemes of future adjustment.

Ecclesiastical Council.

The Council of ministers which have been in ession during the last two days, at the First Bapdst Church, engaged in hearing, the grievances of ime past, concluded their ditting, and rendered for a most patient. hearing of the Church, through their paster Rev. Mr. Adlam, and of the aggrieved members through Mr. A. J. Ward, their Reprecataliyo comsel.

We are glad to learn also that the decisions of the Cosmell are mutually enti-factory, and will probably form a basis upon which the aggileved parties wilt again harmonize together in prace and church fellowship. This is certainly desirable.

Below we publish the report of the Corneil and the decisions to which they arrived :

At an Ecclesiactical Council, called by the First Baptiat Church and catalar aggreeous brethren and esteen now or recently members of said Church, converned in this city on the 9th 18th and 11th lines, and composed of the following delegates to city.
